Description

Seni is one of the leading manufacturers of disposable incontinence products in Europe and the "quatro" line represents their top-of-the line product. Quatro = four in Portuguese; it is quite possible they are so named because several sizes in this series exceed four litres of ISO capacity. This puts them in the rare company of Abena, Absorbency Plus and Dry 24/7.

In fact, our own testing shows these to be the most absorbent soft-outer brief we have ever tested, with an incredible 86 ounces of maximum usable capacity.

These have a very strong and fully waterproof soft cloth-like outer cover. Even if you have had trouble with "cloth-like" covers, the Seni is worth a try. They are using a heavy gauge waterproof barrier inside that eliminates stretching, sagging and weeping, while the outer surface is soft and finely textured, greatly reducing skin irritation and friction. This is without a doubt the best soft-outer brief we have tried to date.

Seni Quattro are fully featured, with standing leak guards, refastenable tapes and both front and rear waistbands.

This improved version is offered in more sizes, including small and regular, easier to handle case sizes, a more dignified backsheet (no longer pink) and a more effective acquisition layer to enable faster absorbency and improved skin dryness.

- Small: Green Stripe
- Medium: No Stripe, all white
- Regular: Lavender Stripe
- Large: Blue Stripe
- X-Large: Peach Stripe
